

A Song in the Night

Sacred Songs in the Folk Music Tradition

*Ye shall have a song in the night when a holy solemnity is kept;
and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe
to come into the mountain of the LORD,
to the mighty One of Israel.
Isaiah 30:29*

ADORATION

Isaac Watts
L.M.

"The Son of man shall be betrayed... and they shall condemn him to death." Matt. 20:18

1. 'Twas on that dark and so - lemn night, When pow'rs of earth and hell a - rose
2. See from his head, his hands, his feet, Sor - row and love flow min - gled down!
3. For us his flesh with nails was torn; He bore the scourge, he felt the thorn;
4. Oh! the sweet won - ders of that cross, Where God, the Sa - viour, lov'd and dy'd!
5. Were the whole realm of na - ture mine, That were a pre - sent far too small;

A - gainst the Son of God's de - light, And friends be - tray'd him to his foes.
Did e'er such love and sor - row meet? Or thorns com - pose so rich a crown?
And just - ice pour'd u - pon his head Its hea - vy ven - geance, in our stead.
Her no - blest life my spir - it draws, From his dear wounds and bleed - ing sides.
Love, so a - maz - ing, so di - vine, De - mands my soul, my life, my all.

BLADE OF GRASS

Words & Music by
Krys DeBartolo

"They are like grass which groweth up.
In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up." Ps. 90:5,6

1. The mea - dow and val - ley is clothed in grass, A beau - ti - ful and e - mer - ald green;

From which a ti - ny, ten - der blade Be - gins to grow, to eyes un - seen.

So slow - ly it push - es up through the earth, With migh - ty pow'r, that's not its own,

And o - pens reach - ing to - ward the sun, While catch - ing light that it is shown.

Now the pow'r which works so migh - ti - ly In a ti - ny ten - der blade of grass,

Will e - ven work more migh - ti - ly, In the man that trusts the Lord.

COMMUNION

Psalm 122 (C.M.)
Isaac Watts

"I was glad when they said unto me,
Let us go into the house of the Lord." Ps. 122:1

1. How sweet and aw - ful is the place, With Christ with - in the doors,
2. How did my heart re - joice to hear My friends de - vout - ly say,
3. Up to her courts, with joys un - known, The ho - ly tribes re - pair;
4. Peace be with - in this sa - cred place, And joy a con - stant guest!

While e - ver - last - ing love dis - plays The choic - est of her stores!
'In Zi - on let us all ap - pear, And keep the sol - emn day!
The Son of Da - vid holds his throne, And sits in judg - ment there.
With ho - ly gifts and hea - venly grace, Be her at - tend - ants blest.

Here ev - 'ry mer - cy of our God In soft com - pas - sion rolls,
I love her gates, I love the road! The church, a - dorn'd with grace,
He hears our prais - es and com - plaints; And while his aw - ful voice
My soul shall pray for Zi - on still, While life or breath re - mains;

Here peace and par - don bought with blood, Is food for dy - ing souls.
Stands like a pa - lace built for God, To shew his mild - er face.
Di - vides the sin - ners from the saints, We trem - ble, and re - joice!
Here my best friends my kin - dred dwell, Here God, my Sav - iour reigns.

"The time of the Passover corresponded to the close of March or the beginning of April, and the whole land was bright with flowers, and glad with the song of birds. All along the way were spots memorable in the history of Israel, and fathers and mothers recounted to their children the wonders that God had wrought for His people in ages past. They beguiled their journey with song and music, and when at last the towers of Jerusalem came into view, every voice joined in the triumphant strain,--

"Our feet shall stand
Within thy gates, O Jerusalem...
Peace be within thy walls,
And prosperity within thy palaces."
Ps. 122:2-7"

The Desires of Ages, p. 76

Wyeth and Davisson

1. Come, thou fount of ev - 'ry bles - sing, Tune my heart to sing Thy grace!
2. Come, thou ev - er - last - ing Spi - rit! Bring to ev - 'ry thank - ful mind

All the Sav - iour's dy - ing mer - it, All his suff - 'rings for man - kind.
Let us feel thy pow'r ap - ply - ing Christ to ev' - ry soul, and mine.
Let thy good - ness, like a fet - ter, Bind my wand - 'ring heart to thee:

Teach me some me - lo - dious son - net, Sung by flam - ing tongues a - bove;
True Re - cord - er of his pas - sion, Now the liv - ing fire im - part;
Let us groan thy in - ward groan - ing, Look on him we pierc'd, and grieve;
Prone to wan - der, Lord, I feel it, Prone to leave the God I love, --

Praise the mount, Oh fix me on it, Mount of Thy re - deem - ing love.
Now re - veal his great sal - va - tion, Preach his gos - pel to our heart.
All re - ceive the grace a - ton - ing, All the sprink - led blood re - ceive.
Here's my heart, Oh take and seal it, Seal it for thy courts a - bove!

A HUMBLER TEMPLE

"...our earthly house of this tabernacle..." 2Cor. 5:1

Nathaniel Parker Willis
(L.M.)

G.F. Handel

1. The per - fect world by A - dam trod Was the first tem - ple built by God;
2. He hung its star - ry roof on high The broad il - lim - it - a - ble sky;
3. The mountains in their plac - es stood The sea the sky and "all was good";
4. Lord! 'tis not ours to make the sea And earth and sky a house for thee;

His fi - at laid the cor - ner stone, And heaved its pil - lars one by one.
He spread its pavement green and bright, And cur - tain'd it with morn - ing light.
And when its first pure prais - es rang, The "morn - ing stars to - geth - er sang."
But in Thy sight our of - f'ring stands, A hum - bler tem - ple, "made with hands."

ESSENTIAL LOVE

*"Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity,
I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal." 1Cor. 13:1*

Isaac Watts
1 Cor. 13:1-3 (LM)

Graham

1. Had I the tongues of Greeks and Jews, And nob - ler speech than an - gels use,
2. Were I in - spired to preach, and tell All that is done in heav'n and hell;
3. Should I dis - tri - bute all my store, In alms to feed the hun - gry poor;
4. If love to God and love to men, Be ab - sent, all my hopes are vain;

If love be ab - sent, I am found, Like tink - ling brass, an emp - ty sound.
Or could my faith the world re - move, Still I am noth - ing with - out love.
Or give my bo - dy to the flame, To gain a mar - tyr's glor - ious name;--
Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fie - ry zeal, The work of love can e'er ful - fill.

DIVINE SHEPHERD

"The Lord is my shepherd." Ps. 23:1

Addison
Psalm 23

American Folk Melody

1. The Lord my pas-ture shall pre-pare, And feed me with a shep-herd's care;
2. When in the sul-try glebe I faint, Or on the thir-sty moun-tain pant;
3. Though in the paths of death I tread, With gloom-y hor-rors o-ver-spread,
4. Though in a bare and rug-ged way, Through de-vious lone-ly wilds I stray,

His pre-sence shall my wants sup-ply, And guard me with a watch-ful eye,
To fer-tile vales and dew-y meads My wear-y, wan-d'ring steps he leads,
My stead-fast heart shall fear no ill, For thou, O Lord, art with me still:
Thy boun-ty shall my wants be-guile: The bar-ren wil-der-ness shall smile,

My noon-day walks he shall at-tend, And all my mid-night hours de-fend.
Where peace-ful riv-ers, soft and slow, A-mid the ver-dant land-scape flow.
Thy friend-ly rod shall give me aid, And guide me through the dread-ful shade.
With sud-den greens and herb-age crown'd, And streams shall mur-mur all a-round.

DISAPPOINTED

"It shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey." Rev. 10:9

William Miller (1844)

8s

1. How te-dious and lone-some the hours,
2. He ling-ers -- I pray tell me why
3. I long to be with Him at home,

While Je-sus, my Sav-iour, de-lays!
His char-iot no soon-er re-turns?
My heart swal-lowed up in His love,

I've sought Him in so-li-tude's bow'rs, And looked for Him all the long days.
To see Him in clouds of the sky, My soul with in-ten-si-ty burns.
On fields of New E-den to roam, To dwell with my Sa-viour a-bove.

EVERLASTING PORTION

Isaac Watts and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee." Ps. 73:25
Psalm 73:25 (C.M.)

Nova Scotian Melody

1. My God, my por-tion and my love, My e-ver-last-ing All,
2. To thee we owe our wealth and friends, And health and safe a-bode:
3. Were I pos-ses-sor of the earth, And called the stars my own;

I've none but thee in heav'n a-bove, Or on this earth-ly ball.
Thanks to thy name for mean-er things; But they are not my God.
With-out thy grac-es and thy-self, I were a wretch un-done.

What emp-ty things are all the skies, And this in-fer-ior clod!
In vain the bright, the burn-ing sun Scat-ters his fee-ble light;
Let o-thers stretch their arms like seas, And grasp in all the shore;

There's nothing here de-serves my joys, There's noth-ing like my God.
'Tis thy sweet beams cre-ate my noon: If thou with-draw, 'tis night.
Grant me the vis-its of thy face, And I de-sire no more.

FEAST OF LOVE

"Awake, as in the ancient days..." Isa. 51:9

Charles Wesley

German Tune (from John Wesley's
"Foundry Tune Book," 1742)

1. Come, and let us sweet-ly join, Christ to praise in, Christ to praise in hymns di-vine;
2. Give we all with one ac-cord, Glo-ry to our, Glo-ry to our com-mon Lord.
3. Strive we, in af-fec-tion strive; Let the pur-er, Let the pu-rer flame re-vive;

CHORUS Hands, and hearts, and voi-ces raise; Sing as in the an-cient days;

An-te-date the joys a-bove, Ce-le-brate the feast of love.

WISDOM'S WARNING

Wilson MacDonald
Proverbs 6:4-11(7,7,10)

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard;
consider her ways, and be wise." Prov. 6:6

Nova Scotian Melody

1. Let not the weight of slumber thy heavy eyes en-cumber; but as a roe out-wit the hun-ter's eyes:
2. Con-sid-er her and heed her, which hath no guide or leader; and yet in summer hath a bounteous feast.
3. O, yet a lit-tle slumber, when heavy eyes en-cumber; a little folding of the hands to sleep!

Or, as a soar-ing sparrow, a-void the hunter's ar-row; stu-dy the ant, thou sluggard and be wise.
O sluggard, from thy sleeping will come an hour of weeping. A-rise the sun is gold-en in the east.
And thou shalt on the morrow reap po-ver-ty and sor-row; and Want, an armed man, on thee will creep.

FAMILY CIRCLE

Let us feel thy pow'r apply-ing Christ to ev'-ry soul and mine.

CHORUS

Bless the Lord, O my soul! Praise the Lord, O my brother! Shout and sing, O my sister! Give Him glo-ry, O my father! And re-joice, O my mother! And we'll tra-vel on to-gether, And we'll join heart and hands for Ca-naan.

The earth and seas are passed a - way, And the old, rol - ling skies!
Mor - tals, be - hold the sac - red seat Of your de - scend - ing King.
And pains, and groans, and griefs, and fears, And death it - self shall die.

1. My soul for-sakes her vain de-lights, And bids the world fare-well,
2. There's noth-ing round this spacious earth, That suits my large de-sire;
3. Th' Al-migh-ty ru-ler of the sphere, The Glo-rious and the Great,

Base as the dirt be - neath my feet; And mis - chiev - ous as hell -
To bound - less joy and so - lid mirth, My nob - ler thoughts as - pire,
Brings his own all - suf - fi - cience there, To make our bliss com - plete.

No long - er will I ask your love Nor seek your friend - ship more,
Where pleas - ure rolls its liv - ing flood, From sin and dross re - fined,
Had I the pin - ions of a dove, I'd climb the heav - en - ly road;

The hap - pi - ness that I ap - prove Is not with - in your power.
Still spring - ing from the throne of God, And fit to cheer the mind.
There sits my Sav - iour dress'd in love, And there my smil - ing God.

1. Say now, ye love - ly so - cial band, Who walk the way to Ca - naan's land,
2. O, come, young sol - diers, count the cost, And say, what plea - sures have you lost?
3. Is fol - ly's way the way of peace, Where fear, and pain, and sor - row cease?
4. Did you not dread the hast' - ning day, When car - nal joys must pass a - way?
5. There, on the hill of sweet re - pose, You'll bid a - dieu to all your woes;
6. But, oh, I see a - mong the rest, A host in whi - ter gar - ments dress'd,
7. Now, now we know from whence this throng, For, hark! re - demp - tion is their song:

Ye who have fled from So - dom's plain, Say, do you wish to turn a - gain?
Or what mis - for - tune does it bring, To have Je - ho - vah for your king?
Does plea - sure roll its liv - ing stream, And is re - li - gion all a dream?
When death shall sing in mourn - ful strain, "Let dust to dust re - turn a - gain?"
There you shall walk the flow' - ry fields, And taste the fruit that Zi - on yields:
And near - er to the throne they stand, With palms of vict' - ry in their hand!
From yon - der vale of tears they come; Wel - come ye trav' - lers, wel - come home!

Oh! have you ven - tured to the field, Well arm'd with hel - met, sword, and shield!
Shall sin en - tice you back a - gain, And bind you with its i - ron chain?
Say, what con - tent - ment did you find When love of plea - sure ruled your mind?
But now your thoughts de - light to soar Where earth and time shall be no more;
There sits the Sa - viour on his throne, And there Je - ho - vah reigns a - lone;
Oh, who are those I now be - hold With blood - wash'd robes and crowns of gold,
Oh, now u - pon the peace - ful shore You're met at last to part no more

And shall the world, with dread a - larms, Com - pel you now to ground your arms?
Has vice to you such love - ly charms, That you must die with - in its arms?
No sweet re - flec - tion gave you rest, Nor con - scious vir - tue calm'd your breast.
They pass the grave and mount on high, To the fair fields a - bove the sky.
There an - gels cir - cle round his seat, And ar - mies wor - ship at his feet.
A glor - ious host, dis - tinct - ly known To him that sits u - pon the throne?
Where flesh and sin shall not con - trol The pure af - fec - tions of the soul.

 A lit - tle spark lights up the whole, And sets the crowd on fi - re.

A lit - tle drop of Je - sus' blood Can make a feast of un - ion;
 A lit - tle char - i - ty and zeal, A lit - tle tri - bu - la - tion,

 A lit - tle voice that's small and still Can rule the whole cre - a - tion;
 A lit - tle un - ion serves to hold The good and ten - der - heart - ed;

1. My Chris - tian friends, in bonds of love, Whose hearts in sweet - est un - ion join,
2. How sweet the hours have passed a - way, Since we have met to sing and pray;
3. And since it is God's ho - ly will, We must be part - ed for a - while,
4. How oft I've seen your flow - ing tears, And heard you tell your hopes and fears!
5. And now, my friends both old and young, I hope in Christ you'll still go on;
6. O glor - ious day! O bles - sed hope! My soul leaps for - ward at the thought,

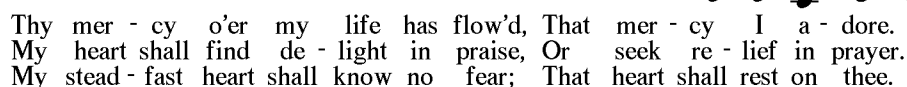

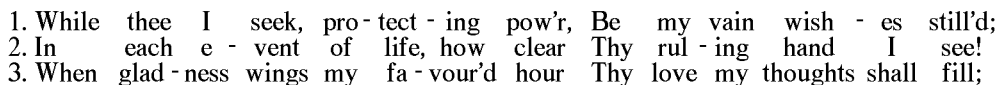

Your friend-ship's like a draw-ing band, Yet we must take a part - ing hand.
 How loath we are to leave the place Where Je - sus shows his smil - ing face.
 In sweet sub - mis - sion, all as one, We'll say, our Fa - ther's will be done.
 Your hearts with love were seen to flame, Which makes me hope we'll meet a - gain.
 And if on earth we meet no more, O may we meet on Ca - naan's shore.
 When, on that hap - py hap - py land, We'll no more take the part - ing hand.

Your com - pan - y's sweet, your un - ion dear, Your words de - light - ful to my ear,
Oh, could I stay with friends so kind, How would it cheer my droop - ing mind!
My youth - ful friends, in Christ - ian ties, Who seek for man - sions in the skies,
Ye mourn - ing souls lift up your eyes To glor - ious man - sions in the skies;
I hope you'll all re - mem - ber me, If you on earth no more I see;
But with our bles - sed, ho - ly Lord, We'll shout and sing with one ac - cord;

Yet when I see that we must part, You draw like cords a - round my heart.
 But du - ty makes me un - der - stand, That we must take the part - ing hand.
 Fight on, we'll gain that hap - py shore, Where part - ing will be known no more.
 O trust his grace, in Ca - naan's land, We'll no more take the part - ing hand.
 An in - t'rest in your prayers I crave, That we may meet be - yond the grave.
 And there we'll all with Je - sus dwell, So lov - ing Christ - ians fare you well.

SECURE ABODE

Isaac Watts
Psalm 91:1-7 (L.M.)

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." Ps. 91:1

Nova Scotian Melody

1. He that hath made his re-fuge God, Shall find a most se-secure a-bode;
2. Then will I say, "My God, thy power Shall be my for-tress and my tower;
3. Thrice hap-py man! thy Ma-ker's care Shall keep thee from the fowl-er's snare;
4. Just as a hen pro-jects her brood, From birds of prey that seek their blood,
5. If burn-ing beams of noon con-spire To dart a pe-sti-len-tial fire;
6. If va-pours with ma-lig-nant breath, Rise thick, and scat-ter mid-night death,
7. What though a thou-sand at thy side, A-round thy path ten thou-sand died,

- (1) Shall walk all day be-neath his shade, And there at night shall rest his head.
- (2) I that am formed of fee-ble dust Make thine al-migh-ty arm my trust."
- (3) From Sa-tan's wiles, who still be-trays Un-guard-ed souls, a thou-sand ways.
- (4) The Lord his faith-ful saints shall guard, And end-less life be their re-ward.
- (5) God is their life, his wings are spread, To shield them with a health-ful shade.
- (6) Is-rael is safe: the poi-soned air Grows pure, if Is-rael's God be there.
- (7) Thy God his cho-sen peo-ple saves A-mongst the dead, a-midst the graves.

Mercer's Cluster

1. Though trou-bles as-sail, and dan-gers af-fright, Tho' friends all should fail, and foes all u-nite--
2. The birds with-out barn or storehouse are fed; From them let us learn to trust for our bread;
3. We may, like the ships, by tem-pests be tossed On per-i-lous deeps, but can-not be lost;
4. His call we o-bey, like A-bram of old, Not know-ing our way, but faith makes us bold;
5. When Sa-tan ap-pears to stop up our path, And fill us with fears, we tri-umph by faith;
6. He tells us we're weak, our hope is in vain; The good that we seek we ne'er shall ob-tain;
7. No strength of our own, or good-ness we claim; Yet since we have known the Sa-vior's great name,
8. When life sinks a-pace, and death is in view, This word of his grace shall com-fort us through:

- (1) Yet one thing se-cludes us, what-e-ver be-tide, The Scrip-ture as-sures us the Lord will pro-vide.
- (2) His saints, what is fit-ting, shall ne'er be de-nied, So long as 'tis writ-ten, the Lord will pro-vide.
- (3) Tho' Sa-tan en-ra-ges the wind and the tide, The pro-mise en-ga-ges the Lord will pro-vide.
- (4) For though we are stran-gers, we have a good guide, And trust, in all dan-gers, the Lord will pro-vide.
- (5) He can-not take from us, though oft he has tried, This heart-cheer-ing pro-mise, the Lord will pro-vide.
- (6) But when such sug-ges-tions our spi-rits have plied, This an-swers all ques-tions, the Lord will pro-vide.
- (7) In this our strong tow-er for safe-ty we hide; The Lord is our pow-er, the Lord will pro-vide.
- (8) No fear-ing or doubt-ing with Christ on our side, We hope to die shout-ing, the Lord will pro-vide.

"I am the rose of Sharon,

11,8

Humphreys

1. O Thou in whose pre-sence my soul takes de-light, On whom in af-flic-tion I call,
2. O why should I wan-der an a-lien from thee, Or cry in the de-sert for bread?
3. This is my Be-lov-ed, his form is di-vine, His vest-ments shed o-dours a-round;
4. His voice, as the sound of a dul-ci-mer sweet, Is heard through the sha-dow of death,
5. Love sits on his eye-lid and scat-ters de-light, Through all the bright man-sions on high;

- (1) My com-fort by day and my song in the night, My hope, my sal-va-tion, my all.
- (2) My foes will re-joice when my sor-rows they see, And smile at the tears I have shed;
- (3) The locks on his head are as grapes on the vine, When au-tumn with plen-ty is crown'd.
- (4) The ce-dars of Le-ba-non bow at his feet, The air is per-fumed with his breath.
- (5) Their fa-cies the che-ru-bim veil in his sight, And trem-ble with ful-ness of joy.

- (1) Where dost thou at noon-tide re-sort with thy sheep, To feed on the pas-ture of love?
- (2) Ye daugh-ters of Zi-on, de-clare, have you seen The Star that on Is-ra-el shone;
- (3) The ro-ses of Sha-ron, the li-lies that grow In vales on the banks of the streams;
- (4) His lips as a foun-tain of right-eous-ness flow, That wa-ters the gar-den of grace,
- (5) He looks, and ten thou-sands of an-gels re-joice, And my-ri-ads wait for his word;

- (1) For why in the val-ley of death should I weep-- A-lone in the wil-der-ness rove?
- (2) Say if in your tents my Be-lov-ed hath been And where with his flock he hath gone.
- (3) His cheeks in the beau-ty of ex-cel-lence glow, His eye all in-vit-ing-ly beams.
- (4) From which their sal-va-tion the Gen-tiles shall know And bask in the smiles of his face.
- (5) He speaks, and e-ter-ni-ty, fill'd with his voice, Re-e-choes the praise of her Lord.

BETHANY

"Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart." Ps. 27:14

1. Give to the winds thy fears; Hope, and be un-dis-may'd!
2. Through waves, and clouds, and storms, He gent-ly clears thy way;
3. Still hea-vy is thy heart? Still sink thy spir-its down?
4. What though thou ru-lest not, Yet heav'n, and earth, and hell,

- God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears, God shall lift up thy head.
Wait thou his time, so shall this night Soon end in joy-ous day.
Cast off the weight, let fear de-part, And ev-'ry care be gone.
Pro-claim, God sit-teth on the throne And ru-leth all things well.

THIRSTY SPIRIT

"My soul thirsteth for thee...." Ps. 63:1

Isaac Watts
Psalm 63:1-5 (CM)

1. Ear - ly, my God, with - out de - lay, I haste to seek thy face;
2. I've seen thy glo - ry and thy pow'r Through all thy tem - ple shine;
3. Not life it - self with all its joys, Can my best pas - sions move,

My thir - sty spi - rit faints a - way With - out thy cheer - ing grace.
My God re - peat that heav'n - ly hour, That vi - sion so di - vine.
Or raise so high my cheer - ful voice, As thy for - giv - ing love.

So pil - grims, on the scor - ching sand, Be - neath a burn - ing sky,
Not all the bles - sings of a feast Can please my soul so well,
Thus, 'till my last ex - pir - ing day, I'll bless my God and King;

Long for a cool - ing stream at hand; And they must drink or die.
As when thy rich - er grace I taste, And in thy pre - sence dwell.
Thus will I lift my hands to pray, And tune my lips to sing.

2. Lord, shall the wick - ed still de - ride Thy jus - tice and thy pow'r?
3. They cast thy judg - ments from their sight, And then in - sult the poor;

8. Proud ty - rants shall no more op - press, No more de - spise the just;

(1) When great ca - la - mi - ties ap - pear, And times of deep dis - tress?
(2) Shall they ad - vance their heads in pride, And still thy saints de - vour?
(3) They boast, in their ex - alt - ed height, That they shall fall no more.
(4) No e - ne - my shall dare to stand When God a - scends on high.
(5) "The God of heav'n will ne'er en - gage To fight on Zi - on's side?"

(7) Hear - ken to what thy child - ren say, And put the world in fear.
(8) And might - y sin - ners shall con - fess They are but earth and dust.

TRUE PENITENT

"For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call." Acts 2:39

CM

W. Billings

1. Hark! hear the sound on earth is found, My soul de-lights to hear
2. God's char-iots they no long-er stay; They're mount-ed on the truth;
3. God grant a show'r of his great pow'r; On ev'-ry ach-ing heart,

Of dy-ing love that's from a - bove, Or par-don bought so dear.
The saints in pray'r, cry, "Lord, draw near, Have mer-cy on the youth."
Who ear-nest-ly to God do cry, That they may have a part.

God's min-is-ters like flames of fire Are pas-sing thro' the land,
Young con-verts sing, and praise their King, And bless God's ho-ly name;
Come, love-ly youth, em-brace the truth, A-gree with one ac-cord;

The voice I hear, "Re-pent and fear, King Je-sus is at hand."
While old-er saints, true pen-i-tents, Re-joice to join the theme.
And use your tongues while you are young, In prais-ing of the Lord.

HOW CHARMING IS JESUS

"...the chiefest among ten thousand..." Song 5:10

7,6

1. There we shall reign with Je - sus, On that de-light-ful shore,
2. The wick-ed cease from troub-ling, The wear-y are at rest;
3. We shall be like the an - gels, In that im-mor-tal throng,

And shout with the re-deem-ed, Our sins and sor-rows o'er!
And we shall reign with Je - sus, E - ter-nal a - ges blest.
And shout a-loud sal - va-tion, 'Twill be our last-ing song.

Oh, how charm-ing! how charm-ing! how charm-ing is Je - sus,

He is my Re-deem-er, my Lord and my God.

A - rise and pray, we'll win the day, Tho' we are few in num - ber.
His pre - cious name lights up the flame That sets our souls on fi - re.
Tho' some go off, and bold - ly scoff, And say that we are danc - ing.
For Je - sus' name will bear the blame, And give him all the glo - ry.
Let sweet - est songs em - ploy their tongues Fill them with joy and won - der.

THE BLESSED WAY

"Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord." Ps. 119:1

L.M.

T.W. Carter

1. With thank-ful-ness we will a-dore The God of hea-ven e-ver-more,
2. He sent his pure and love-ly Son, In whom this glor-ious work be-gun;
3. Thus God in mer-cy opes to me The way of life and li-ber-ty;
4. Then come, ye sin-ners, to the Lord, Be-lieve on him, be-lieve his word,
5. Then hea-ven's joys we all shall feel; Be fill'd with life, and love, and zeal,

For lay-ing out the bles-sed way, Which we are cal-led to o-bey.
But through the cru-el-ty of man, They took his life to stop the plan.
He gives me strength to bear the cross, And count all earth-ly things but dross.
O-bey his call, all sin re-ject, This love will all your souls pro-tect,
And glo-ry in each heart shall dwell, Which mor-tal's tongue can ne-ver tell,

O glo-ry, glo-ry! hal-le-lu-jah! 'Tis a bright and shin-ing way. O glo-ry!
O glo-ry, glo-ry! hal-le-lu-jah! Stop this work they ne-ver can. O glo-ry!
O glo-ry, glo-ry! hal-le-lu-jah! Peace and love come by the cross. O glo-ry!
O glo-ry, glo-ry! hal-le-lu-jah! Love will all our souls pro-ect, O glo-ry!
O glo-ry, glo-ry! hal-le-lu-jah! An-gel's tongue would fail to tell, O glo-ry!

GLORIOUS HOPE

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy

2. The things e-ter-nal I pursue, A hap-pi-ness be-yond the view Of those that base-ly pant
3. Noth-ing on earth I call my own: A stran-ger to the world un-known, I all their good de-spise;
4. There is my house and portion fair, My trea-sure and my heart is there, And my a-bid-ing home;
5. I come, thy servant, Lord, replies, I come to meet thee in the skies, And claim my heav'nly rest;

It gives my ravished soul to taste, And makes me for some mom-ents feast
For things by na-ture felt and seen; Their hon-ors, wealth, and plea-sures mean,
I tram-ple on their whole delight And seek a coun-try out of sight,
For me my el-der brethren stay, And an-gels beck-on me a-way,
Soon will the pilgrim's journey end, Then O my Sav-iour, Bro-ther, Friend,

With Je-sus' priests and kings.
I nei-ther have nor want.
A coun-try in the skies.
And Je-sus bids me come.
Re-ceive me to thy breast.

2. I need not tell thee who I am, My mis - er - y and sin de - clare;
3. In vain thou strug - glest to get free, I ne - ver will un - loose my hold;
4. Wilt thou not yet to me re - veal Thy new, un - ut - ter - a - ble name?
5. What though my shrink - ing flesh com - plain, And mur - mer to con - tend so long!

My com - pan - y be - fore has gone, And I am left a - lone with thee,
Thy - self hast call'd me by my name, Look on thy hands and read it there:
Art thou the man that died'st for me? The sec - ret of thy love un - fold:
Tell me, I still be - seech thee, tell, To know it now re - solved I am;
I rise su - per - ior to my pain; When I am weak then I am strong!

With thee all night I mean to stay, And wres - tle till the break of day.
But who, I ask thee, who art thou? Tell me thy name, and tell me now.
Wres - tling, I will not let thee go, Till I thy name, thy na - ture know.
Wres - tling, I will not let thee go, Till I thy name, thy na - ture know.
And when my all of strength shall fail, I shall with the God - man pre - vail.

6. Yield to me now, for I am weak,
But confident, in self-despair;
Speak to my heart, in blessings, speak,
Be conquer'd by my instant prayer;
Speak, or thou never hence shall move,
And tell me if thy name be Love.

7. 'Tis love! 'tis love! thou died'st for me,
I hear thy whisper in my heart!
The morning breaks, the shadows flee,
Pure, universal love thou art.
To me, to ALL, below, above,
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

8. My prayer hath power with God, the grace
Unspeakable I now receive;
Through faith I see thee face to face,
I see thee face to face, and live!
In vain I have not wept and strove,
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

9. The Sun of Righteousness, on me
Hath rose, with healing in his wings,
Wither'd my nature's strength; from thee
My soul its life and succor brings;
My help is all laid up above,
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

10. Contented now, upon my thigh
I halt till life's short journey end;
All helplessness, all weakness, I
On thee alone for strength depend:
Nor have I power from thee to move,
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

11. Lame as I am, I take the prey,
Hell, earth, and sin with ease o'ercome
I leap for joy, pursue my way,
And as a bounding hart fly home;
Through all eternity to prove
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

CHRISTIAN'S HOPE

"Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God..." 2Pet. 3:12

8,8,8,6 D

William Walker

1. A few more days on earth to spend, And all my toils and cares shall end,
2. Then, O my soul, de-spond no more, The storm of life will soon be o'er,
3. My soul an-ti-ci-pates the day, I'll joy-ful-ly the call o-bey,
4. Though dire af-flic-tions press me sore, And death's dark bil-lows roll be-fore,
5. To earth-ly cares I bid fare-well, And tri-umph o-ver death and hell,
6. A-dieu! ye scenes of noise and show, And all this re-gion here be-low,

And I shall see my God and friend, And praise his name on high:
And I shall find the peace-ful shore Of ev-er-last-ing rest.
Which comes to sum-mon me a-way To seats pre-pared a-bove;
Yet still by faith I see the shore, Be-yond the rol-ling flood:
And go where saints and an-gels dwell, To praise th'e-ter-nal Three,
Where naught but dis-ap-pointments grow, A bet-ter world's in view:

No more to sigh nor shed a tear, No more to suf-fer pain or fear,
O hap-py day! O joy-ful hour! When freed from earth, my soul shall tow-er,
There I shall see my Sav-iour's face, And dwell in his be-lov'd em-brace,
The banks of Ca-naan, sweet and fair, Be-fore my rap-tured eyes ap-pear,
I'll join with those who've gone be-fore, Who sing and shout their sufferings o-ver,
My Sav-iour calls! I haste a-way, I would not here for-e-ver stay;

But God and Christ and heav'n ap-pear Un-to the rap-tur'd eye.
Be-yond the reach of Sa-tan's pow'r, To be for-ev-er blest.
And taste the ful-ness of his grace, And sing re-deeming love.
It makes me think I'm al-most there, In yon-der bright a-bode.
Where pain and part-ing are no more, To all e-ter-ni-ty.
Hail! ye bright realms of end-less day; Vain world once more a-dieu.

CLOUDY CISTERN

Isaac Watts
Psalm 104:13-15 (L.M.)

"He watereth the hills from his chambers:
the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works." Ps. 104:13

Scottish Ballad

1. God, from his cloud-y cis-tern, pours, On the parched earth en-rich-ing showers;
2. He makes the gras-sy food a-rise, And gives the cat-tle large sup-plies;
3. What no-ble fruit the vines pro-duce! The o-live yields a pleas-ing juice;
4. His boun-teous hands our ta-ble spread, He fills our cheer-ful stores with bread;

The grove, the gar-den, and the field, A thousand joy-ful blessings yield.
With herbs for men, of var-ious power, To nourish na-ture or to cure.
Our hearts are cheer'd with gen-'rous wine; His gifts proclaim his love di-vine.
While food our vi-tal strength im-parts, Let dai-ly praise in-spire our hearts.

HEAVENLY DOVE

"I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt:
open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it." Ps. 81:10

5. Come, Ho - ly Spi - rit, heav'n - ly Dove, With all thy quick'n - ing pow - ers;

Kin - dle a flame of sac - red love In these cold hearts of ours.
Our souls can nei - ther fly, nor go, To reach e - ter - nal joys.
Ho - san - nas lan - guish on our tongues, And our de - vo - tion dies.

Sound thro' the earth, yea, down to hell, To call the na - tions great and small.
Whilst Christ the Judge their joy pro - claims Here come my saints, I own their names.
See saints and an - gels join in one, And march in splen - dour round the throne.

Great tri - bu - la - tion you shall meet, But soon shall walk the gol - den street,

Ye e - ver - last - ing doors fly wide, Make room for to re - ceive my bride;

The world must hear and know their doom, The se - pa - ra - tion now is come.
Ye harps of heav'n, come sound a - loud, Here comes the pur - chase of my blood.

For Christ our Lord has swept the field,
And we're determined not to yield.

From vain de - sires and e - v'ry lust, Turn off these eyes of mine.
Thy word that I have rest - ed on Shall help my heav - iest hours.
And yet how slow my spir - its move, With - out en - liv - 'ning grace!

(vs. 40) Then shall I love thy gos - pel more, And ne'er for - get thy word;

Lest I should loi - ter in my race, Or turn my feet a - stray.

Of his special favour.

8. (S) - Jesus' precious blood once spilt,
I depend on solely,
To release and bear my guilt;
But I would be holy.
(B) - He that bought you on the cross
Can control thy nature;
Fully purge away thy dross;
Make thee a new creature.

9. (S) - That he can, I nothing doubt,
Be it but his pleasure;
(B) - Though it be not done throughout,
May it not in measure?
(S) - When that measure, far from great,
Still shall seem decreasing--
(B) - Faint not, then, but pray and wait,
Never, never ceasing.

10. (S) - What! when prayer meets no regard?
(B) - Still repeat it often.
(S) - But I feel myself so hard--
(B) - Jesus will thee soften.
(S) - But my enemies make head--
(B) - Let them closer drive thee.
(S) - But I'm cold, I'm dark, I'm dead--
(B) - Jesus will revive thee.

1. When, mar - shall'd on the night - ly plain, The glit - t'ring host be - stud the sky,
2. Once on the rag - ing seas I rode -- The storm was loud, the night was dark;
3. It was my guide, my light, my all; It bade my dark fore - bod - ings cease;

- (2) The o - cean yawn'd and rude - ly blow'd The winds that toss'd my found - ring bark.

- (1) Hark! hark! to God the chor - us breaks, From ev' - ry host, from ev' - ry gem;
- (2) Deep hor - rors then my vi - tals froze; Death struck, I ceased the tide to stem,
- (3) Now, safe - ly moor'd, my per - ils o'er, I'll sing, first in night's di - a - dem,

7. My soul is bound for endless bliss, Let me go, let me go!
What hath the world to equal this? Let me go, let me go!

My race on earth is nearly run,
The battle it is nearly won,
My Saviour smiles, and says, "Well done!" Let me go, let me go.

IMMORTALITY

John Peck, 1773
S.M.D.

"For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality." 1Cor. 15:53

William Billings, 1794

1. What if the saint must die, And lodge a - mong the tombs,
2. The re - sur - rec - tion day Shall crown the saints with joy,
3. E - ter - nal joy in - deed With them is now be - gun;

He need not mourn, he shall re - turn, Re - joic - ing as he comes.
When Christ shall come to fetch them home And all their griefs de - stroy.
They walk in white, and shine more bright Than the me - rid - ian sun.

Though death should hold him down With bands and migh - ty bars,
Now will they sing for joy, When they in beau - ty rise!
"Be - hold the bles - sed Lamb," Their songs shall ev - er sound;

Yet shall he rise a - bove the skies, And sing a - mong the stars.
Their songs a - round the plan - ets sound, As they as - cend the skies.
The an - gels join, and all com - bine To spread their an - thems round.

DIVISION

"I have commanded my sanctified ones,
I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger,
even them that rejoice in my highness." Isa. 13:3

William Walker, 1831

12,12,12,13

1. The time is soon coming by the pro-phets fore-told, When Zi-on in pur-i-ty the world shall be-hold,
2. 'Twill then be dis-cover'd who for Je-sus will be, And who are in Babylon the saints then will see;
3. Led on by the Comfort-er what sweets will be found, What peace and what harmony, in love will a-bound!
4. What beauty will the churches then put on in His sight, Well gov-ern'd by Je-sus, who al-ways does right;

When Je-sus' pure tes-ti-mo-ny will gain the day, All sin and all self-ish-ness will van-ish a-way.
The time of di-vi-sion then will ful-ly be known Be-tween the pure king-dom and de-fil'd Ba-by-lon.
The loss of pos-ses-sions will be count-ed all joy, And help-ing each oth-er a de-light-ful em-ploy.
No spots on her count-en-ance in that glor-ious day, Un-neces-sa-ry ce-re-mon-ies van-ish'd a-way.

5. The watchmen will then lift up their voices as one,
East, west, north, and south, to and fro they will run;
The Spirit's pure testimony, holding up the cross;
The mysteries of Babylon will suffer great loss.
6. But oh! what a storm of persecution will rage,
The cause of old Babylon finds many to engage;
Beholding their losses, and beginning to sink,
They hope to obstruct the light from shining, I think.
7. But truth cuts its way, and love melts down many foes,
The pure word of God will conquer all who oppose;
The church stands in purity, in peace and in love,
In sight of her enemies she rises above.
8. Let all who would wish to see Millennium begin,
Come out, and be separate from sinners and sin;
As soon as the churches are all purified from sin,
The day of Millennium will surely begin.

STRUGGLING SAINT

"I am poor and needy; make haste unto me, O God:
thou art my help and my deliverer." Ps. 70:5

C.M.D.

E.K. Davis

1. My span of life will soon be done, The pas-sing mo-ments say,
2. Cour-age, my soul! Thy bit-ter cross, In ev-'ry tri-al here,
3. Soon will the toil-some strife be o'er Of sub-lun-a-ry care,

And life's dull van-i-ties no more This an-xious breast en-snare.

O that my heart might dwell a-loof From all cre-a-ted things,
The sigh-ing ones that hum-bly seek In sor-rowing paths be-low,
Cour-age, my soul! on God re-ly; De-liv-'rance soon will come;

And learn that wis-dom from a-bove, Whence true con-tent-ment springs.
Shall in e-ter-ni-ty re-joice, Where end-less com-forts flow.
A thou-sand ways has Pro-vi-dence To bring be-liev-ers home.

IDUMEA

John MacCallum (Gaelic Melody)

1. Thou sweet glid-ing Ke-dron, by thy sil-ver stream, Our Sa-viour at mid-night, when moon-light's pale beams
2. O gar-den of Ol-'vet, thou dear, hon-our'd spot, The fame of thy won-der shall ne'er be for-got;

Shone bright on the wa-ters, would fre-quent-ly stray, And lose, in thy mur-murs, the toils of the day.
The theme most trans-port-ing to ser-aphs a-bove: The tri-umph of sor-row, the tri-umph of love!

How damp were the va-pours that fell on his head! How hard was his pil-low, how hum-ble his bed!
Come, saints, and a-dore him; come, bow at his feet! O, give him the glo-ry, the praise that is meet;

The an-gels, as-ton-ish'd, grew sad at the sight, And fol-low'd their Mas-ter with sol-emn de-light.
Let joy-ful ho-san-nas un-ceas-ing a-rise, And join the full chor-us, that glad-dens the skies.

ENDURANCE

"My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God." Ps. 42:2

Isaac Watts
Psalm 42:1-5 (C.M.)

J.L.P. & S.R. Penick

1. With ear-nest long-ings of the mind, My God to thee I look;
2. Temp-ta-tions vex my wear-y soul, And tears are my re-past;
3. But why, my soul, sunk down so far, Be-neath this hea-vy load?

So pants the hunt-ed hart to find, And taste the cool-ing brook.
The foe in-sults with-out con-trol, 'And where's your God at last?'
Why do my thoughts in-dulge de-spair, And sin a-gainst my God?

When shall I see thy courts of grace, And meet my God a-gain?
'Tis with a mourn-ful plea-sure now I think on an-cient days;
Hope in the Lord, whose migh-ty hand Can all thy woes re-move;

So long an ab-sence from thy face My heart en-dures with pain.
Then to thy house did num-bers go, And all our work was praise.
For I shall yet be-fore him stand, And sing re-stor-ing love.

DELIGHT IN GOD

"Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled..." Ps. 104:29

Isaac Watts

Irish Traditional

1. My God, what end - less plea - sures dwell A - bove, at thy right hand!
2. And we, when in thy pre - sence, Lord, We shout with cheer - ful tongues:
3. Just as we see the lone - some dove Be - moan her wi - dow'd state:

Thy courts be - low, how a - mi - a - ble, Where all thy gra - ces stand!
Or sit - ting round our Fa - ther's board, We crown the feast with songs.
Wand - 'ring she flies thro' all the grove, And mourns her lov - ing mate:

The swal - low near thy tem - ple lies, And chirps a cheer - ful note:
While Je - sus shines with quick - 'ning grace, We sing, and mount on high;
Just so our thoughts, from thing to thing, In rest - less cir - cles rove;

The lark mounts up - ward t'ward the skies, And tunes her warb - ling throat.
But if a frown be - cloud his face, We faint, and tire, and die.
Just so we droop, and hang the wing, When Je - sus hides his love.

SWEET AFFLICTION

"Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads,
we went through fire and through water:
but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place." Ps. 66:12

8,7

1. In the floods of tri - bu - la - tion, While the bil - lows o'er me roll,
2. Mid the gloom the vi - vid light-nings, With in - creas - ing bright-ness play;
3. Floods of tri - bu - la - tion bright-en, Bil - lows still a - round me roar;

Those that know not Christ ye fright-en, But my soul de - fies your pow'r.
Where the tri - als now at - tend me, Tri - als ne - ver more an - noy.

Thus the li - on yields me hon - ey, From the eat - er food is giv'n,
So in dark - est dis - pen - sa - tions Doth my faith - ful Lord ap - pear,
In the sac - red page re - cord - ed, Thus the word se - cure - ly stands,
Wear - ing there a weight of glo - ry, Still the path I'll ne'er for - get,

Strengthen'd thus, I still press for - ward, Sing - ing as I wade to heav'n.
With His rich - est con - so - la - tions To re - a - ni - mate and cheer.
Fear not, I'm, in trou - ble, near thee, Nought shall pluck thee from My hands.
But ex - ult - ing cry, "It led me To my bles - sed Sa - viour's feet.

5. The rocks could feel thy pow - er - ful death And trem - ble, and a - sun - der part:

Help me to catch thy pre - cious blood; Help me to taste thy dy - ing love.
I fain with thee would sym - pa - thize, And share the suf - f'ring of my Lord.
O let my in - most na - ture shake, And die with Je - sus cru - ci - fied!
O that my soul might burst the shade, And, quick - ened by thy death a - rise!
O rend with thine ex - pir - ing breath, The hard - er mar - ble of my heart!

1. Come a - way to the skies, My be - lov - ed, a - rise, And re - joice in the day thou wast born;
2. We have laid up our love And our trea - sure a - bove, Though our bo - dies con - tin - ue be - low,
3. Now with sing - ing and praise, Let us spend all the days, By our heav - en - ly Fa - ther be - stow'd,
4. For the glo - ry we were First cre - at - ed to share, Both the na - ture and king - dom di - vine!
5. We with thanks do ap - prove, The de - sign of that love Which hath joined us to Je - sus - 's name;
6. There, Oh! there at his feet, We shall all like - wise meet, And be part - ed in bo - dy no more;
7. Hal - le - lu - jah we sing, To our Fa - ther and King, And his rap - tur - ous prais - es re - peat;

On this fes - ti - val day, Come ex - ult - ing a - way, And with sing - ing to Zi - on re - turn.
The re - deem'd of the Lord, We re - mem - ber his word, And with sing - ing to pa - ra - dise go.

Psalm 121 (S.P.M.)

Coan/F.Z.

1. Up - ward I lift mine eyes-- From God is all my aid;
2. My feet shall ne - ver slide, And fall in fa - tal snares;
3. No burn - ing heats by day, Nor blasts of ev'n - ing air,
4. Hast thou not giv'n thy word, To save my soul from death?

The God who built the skies, And earth and na - ture made.
Since God, my guard and guide, De - fends me from my fears.
Shall take my health a - way, If God be with me there:
And I can trust my Lord To keep my mor - tal breath:

God is the tower To which I fly; His grace is nigh In ev' - ry hour;
Those wake - ful eyes That ne - ver sleep, Shall Is - rael keep When dan - gers rise;
Thou art my sun, And thou my shade, To guard my head, By night or noon;
I'll go and come, Nor fear to die, Till from on high, Thou call me home;

DAILY CARE

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Matt. 6:33

Wilson MacDonald
Matthew 6:25-34 (C.M.,)

1. Let not the thought of food or drink, nor what your cloak shall be,
2. To add one cu - bit to his height no mor - tal man has pow'r.
3. Be - hold the li - lies of the field, con - si - der how they grow:

5. Take then no thought of what you eat or what you drink or wear;
6. Seek first the right - eous - ness of God, and for His king - dom pray,
7. The mor - row shall the guard - ian be of its own joy and woe:

Trou - ble your heart. Is not your life much more than meat to thee?
The hand of God a - lone shall change thy sta - ture hour by hour.

Shall He not much more co - ver thee, O sons of un - be - lief?
The hand that car - eth for the birds, and guides them through the air,
And all these mer - cies will de - scend u - pon you day by day;
Then let your thoughts be of to - day, nor seek be - yond to go.

Is not your bo - dy great - er far than rai - ment's fi - ne - ry?

And yet the garb of So - lo - mon such glo - ry did not know.

Let's all walk to - geth - er, and fol - low the sound,
The place is in Je - sus, to Je - sus we'll go,
Let pa - tience at - tend you where - e - ver you be,
And when you shall see all these to - kens ap - pear,
The sound of the trum - pet shall bid you a - rise,
Then we shall be per - fect, and we shall be free,
Re - deem'd from dam - na - tion, re - deem'd from all woe,

And there find re - demp - tion from sor - row and woe, And there find re - demp - tion from sor - row and woe.
Your Sa - viour has pur - chas'd re - demp - tion for thee, Your Sa - viour has pur - chas'd re - demp - tion for thee.
Then lift up your heads, your re - demp - tion draws near, Then lift up your heads your re - demp - tion draws near.
To meet your re - demp - tion with joy and sur - prise, To meet your re - demp - tion with joy and sur - prise.
We'll sing of re - demp - tion wher - e - ver we be, We'll sing of re - demp - tion wher - e - ver we be.
We'll sing of re - demp - tion wher - e - ver we go, We'll sing of re - demp - tion wher - e - ver we go.
We'll sing of re - demp - tion in hea - ven a - bove, We'll sing of re - demp - tion in hea - ven a - bove!

THE TURTLE DOVE

"The time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land." Song 2:12

LMD

1. Hark! don't you hear the tur - tle dove? The to - ken of re - deem - ing love!
2. The win - ter's past, the rain is o'er, We feel the chil - ling winds no more;
3. The trum - pet sounds, both far and nigh, O sin - ner's, turn! why will ye die?
4. The lat - ter days on us have come, And fu - gi - tives are flock - ing home;
5. His ban - ner soon will be un - furl'd, And he will come to judge the world;

From hill to hill we hear the sound, The neighb'-ring val - leys e - cho round.
The spring is come, how sweet the view! All things ap - pear di - vine - ly new.
How can you spurn the gos - pel charms? En - list with Christ, gird on your arms.
Be - hold them crowd the gos - pel road, All flock - ing to the mount of God!
On Zi - on's moun - tain we shall stand, In Ca - naan's fair, ce - les - tial land.

O Zi - on, hear the tur - tle dove, The to - ken of your Sa - viour's love!
On Zi - on's mount the watch - men cry: "The re - sur - rec - tion's draw - ing nigh;
These are the days that were fore - told, In an - cient times, by pro - phets old;
O, yes! and I will join that band, Now, here's my heart, and here's my hand;
When sun and moon shall dark - en'd be, And flames con - sume the land and sea;

She comes, the des - ert land to cheer, And wel - come in the ju - bil year.
Be - hold! the na - tions from a - broad Are flock - ing to the mount of God.
They longed to see this glor - ious light, But all have died with - out the sight.
With Sa - tan's bands no more I'll be, But fight for Christ and li - ber - ty.
When worlds on worlds to - geth - er blaze, We'll shout, and loud ho - zan - nas raise.

MOURNFUL VOICE

Isaac Watts

"I cried unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me." Ps. 77:1

Irish Traditional Melody

1. To God I cried with mourn-ful voice, I sought his gra-cious ear,
2. Still I com-plained, and still op-pressed My heart be-gan to break:
3. I called back years and an-cient times, When I be-held thy face;
4. Will he for-e-ver cast me off? His pro-mise e-ver fail?
5. I'll think a-gain of all thy ways, And talk thy won-ders o'er;

- (1) In the sad day when trou-bles rose, And filled my heart with fear.
- (2) My God, thy wrath for-bade my rest, And kept my eyes a-wake.
- (3) My spi-rit search'd for se-cret crimes, That might with-hold thy grace.
- (4) Has he for-got his ten-der love? Shall an-ger still pre-vail?
- (5) Thy won-ders of re-cov'-ring grace, When flesh could hope no more.

- (1) Sad were my days, and dark my nights, My soul re-fused re-lief;
- (2) My o-ver-whelm-ing sor-rows grew, Till I could speak no more;
- (3) I call'd thy mer-cies to my mind, Which I en-joyed be-fore:
- (4) But I for-bid this hope-less thought, This dark, de-spair-ing frame,
- (5) Grace dwells with jus-tice on the throne; And men who love thy word,

- (1) I thought on God, the just and wise, But thoughts in-creased my grief.
- (2) Then I with-in my-self with-drew, And called thy judg-ments o'er.
- (3) And will the Lord no more be kind? His face ap-pear no more?
- (4) Re-memb'-ring what thy hand hath wrought; Thy hand is still the same.
- (5) Have in thy sanc-tu-a-ry known The coun-sels of the Lord.

For co-lors which the au-tumn brings and sounds and sights like these.
Of all my thanks this is the best: for fam-i-ly and friends.

And if by him, in whom I live, I once should be for - sak - en;
De - clar - ing if I must com - ply I gros - sly was a - bus - ed.
Then they were all made plain to me, my coun - ten - ance was chang - ed.
I had my fill, both night and day, for nei - ther price nor mo - ney.

When I was young, and brisk and strong, my heart was set on plea - sure,
No com - fort more should e - ver see; but soon should be ne - glec - ted,
No man I've kill'd, no bed de - filed, nor a - ny wi - dow rob - bed,
Death was my lot, I clear - ly saw, if I had not re - mis - sion,
O! then said I, if such a wretch has in the Lord found fa - vor,

And in the wand - 'ring path of youth, I thought to find a trea - sure.
By all my earth - ly friends be - low, by hea - ven be re - ject - ed.
But still I gloom - y felt with - in, my spi - rit sighed and sob - bed.
And just 'twould be, if God should leave me, in this sad con - di - tion.
Sure - ly there's room for all man - kind in my ca - pa - cious Sa - viour.

4. When age, old creep-ing age, comes on, And we are young no more

Some think if they could rich-es gain, They'd gain true hap-pi-ness.
A lit-tle time will make us all In e-equal friend-ship join.
To soft-en cares and temp-er strife Was a con-tent-ted mind:
Let's all re-pent the sins we've done, Nor grieve that youth is o'er;

Ah! we're much to blame, We're all the same, -- A-like we're made of clay;
Ah! we're much to blame, We're all the same, -- A-like we're made of clay:
When we've this in store, We have much more Than wealth could e'er con-vey:
More faith-ful be, Than for-mer-ly, And con-stant-ly to pray:

CHORUS Then since we have a Sa-viour dear Let's drive all cares a-way.

UPWARD LOOK

"My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth." Ps. 121:2

Wilson MacDonald
Psalm 121 (L.M.)

Goff / Zimmerman

1. The up-ward look is full of peace; the heart in it will find re-lease.
2. No sun by day or moon by night shall thee, the Lord's a-noint-ed, smite.

On hill-tops is the soul re-stored: I will look up and see the Lord.
His pro-mise is a jewel-led charm to keep thee e-ver-more from harm.

The God of Moun-tains does not sleep; thy foot from stumb-ling He will keep.
His arms are al-ways round a-bout thy com-ing in and go-ing out.

He walks be-side thee, and the shade on thy right hand by Him is made.
And thou shalt move from shore to shore in His em-brace for-e-ver-more.

TRUE FAITH

"Faith without works is dead." James 2:26

Isaac Watts
C.M.

1. Mis - ta - ken souls! that dream of heav'n, And make their emp - ty boast
2. Faith must o - bey her Fa - ther's will, As well as trust his grace;
3. 'Tis faith, that chan - ges all the heart; 'Tis faith, that works by love;

Of in - ward joys, and sins for - giv'n, While they are slaves to lust.
A pard'n - ing God is jea - lous still For his own ho - li - ness.
That bids all sin - ful joys de - part, And lifts the thoughts a - bove.

Vain are our fan - cies' air - y flights, If faith be cold and dead;
When from the curse he sets us free, He makes our na - tures clean;
'Tis faith that con - quers earth and hell, By a ce - les - tial power;

None but a liv - ing power u - nites To Christ the liv - ing head.
Nor would he send his Son to be The Mi - ni - ster of sin.
This is the grace that shall pre - vail In the de - ci - sive hour.

The rains de - scend - ed, floods then came; The wind passed by with fur - ious feet;

But it de - fied the wind and rain, For it was built u - pon a rock.
And that great house went down in shame, And its de - struc - tion was com - plete.

Nor from my du - ty e'er de - part, But live to Christ with all my heart.
And when our well - dress'd ranks shall stand, In full re - view at God's right hand;

That I a du - tious child may be, To stand and fight the e - ne - my,
Help me to keep my guard - ian dress, And march to right in ho - li - ness;
It's then the en'my will get the rout, And wheel'd by him to left a - bout!

The sol - dier's hea - ven - ly stan - dard is; And I will fight for King Je - sus.
And when th'a - larm's to call the Lord, May pass the word un - to the guard.
O make me pure and spot - less too, And fit to stand the grand re - view.
Then we'll march up the heav - 'nly street, And ground our arms at Je - sus' feet.

About the Music:

The songs in this collection are a combination of folk, or folk-style melodies, and Biblical poetry. This type of union has been practiced at least since the days of the Protestant Reformation, and possibly much earlier. It is illustrative of the gospel, in which God takes common humanity, with its personality, feelings, and modes of expression, sanctifies it, and fills it with a new life, inspiring it with a fresh, and more meaningful message to give to the world, and to the on-looking universe.

"Song in the Night" continues and extends this tradition by combining other folk melodies, such as those from the Canadian provinces of Nova Scotia and Quebec, with suitable religious poems. The results have been very satisfying, and have yielded what many think to be the best songs in the entire collection.

Asides from these original contributions, much of the material has been drawn from previous collections, especially those of the early American period (late 1700's to mid 1800's), such as the Sacred Harp and Christian Harmony. It was during this period that the church, during the great Second Advent Awakening, reached it's purest and most powerful state, in striving to prepare for Christ's imminent return. Since it remains for the church or our day to take up where they left off, and carry the work to completion, this seemed like a good starting point from which to draw the larger part of the inspiration of this current work. As well, songs have been drawn from earlier revivals, including the Reformation of the 16th and 17th centuries, and the Wesleyan revival during the 1700's in England.

In choosing the Biblical poetry that is used for the lyrics of the songs, the highest standard has been our aim. These words can stand on their own as great poetry. They have an uncommon depth, and cover the full range of experiences that face everyone who names the name of Christ, and takes up his cross after Him. It is not surprising that you will often find the names of Isaac Watts, the Wesleys, Wilson MacDonald, and others, who possessed the gift of poetical expression in no common manner, and who matched this with true Christian piety and devotion. Their work endures because the Spirit of the Everlasting One is in it, and thereby they "being dead, yet speak" to us today.

These songs, with their earnest feeling and intelligent expression of faith, will assist in bringing the Word of God into your daily life, where it belongs.
